

History and Capture of Major Andre: Taken from the Revised History of Westchester County (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Robert Bolton

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from History and Capture of Major Andre Taken From the Revised History of Westchester County Major John Andre had been long negotiating with the American general, Arnold, to put the British general, Clinton, in possession of West Point. This post, says Major General Greene, (who, it must be remembered, was president of the court that tried Andre,) is a beautiful little place lying on the west bank of the Hudson, a little below where it breaks through the chain of mountains called the highlands. Its form is nearly circular, in half of its circumference defended by a precipice of great height, rising abruptly from the river, and on the other by a chain of rugged, inaccessible mountains. It is accessible by one pass only from the river, and that is narrow and easily defended; while on the land side it can be approached only at two points - by roads that wind through the mountains and enter it at the river bank on the north and south. Great importance had always been attached to this post by the Ameri...
