RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 80 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)48187617 Subject: Small business -- United States -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . 11 of cooperation with the Centers for Veterans Enterprise and the Department of Labor to improve internal relations through better communication and fact sharing. Another positive change has been their attending sponsored meetings with the VSOs such as the Task Force for Veteran Entrepreneurship and providing updates of policy status and developments. In addition, I would like to say their role as a resource has greatly improved as evidenced through our dealings with their office. They have been effective and been very hands-on in directly assisting veterans recommended by the VFW. There are still many considerations that need to be seen and problems that must be addressed First, the Veterans Business Development Corporation has not had all of its positions filled. This needs to be done immediately or as soon as possible because this is hindering them from doing the job the best they can. Secondly, it also risks opening up a door of doubt and criticism by thinking they are not going to do anything. This factor alone has caused doubt in the uniform communication and collaboration among all the involved parties. It does not seem like anyone is talking to each other, even though in fact at the VSO level we see they are. The Veterans Business Development Corporation is finally now just getting underway after a long and arduous process. Another discrepancy is the failure to have the Advisory Committee appointed and put in place. The VFW is very disappointed this issue has not been treated with the sense of urgency that it deserves. This lack of initiative and inaction on the part of the Small Business Administration...
