

Everyone Has a Day (Paperback)

By Lee Rust

Dog Ear Publishing, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Framed for murder by the Mafia, JD Blaine is now a man on the run. As the mob begins to encroach upon Portland, Oregon, Blaine relies on his two closest associates-Smith, the tough private detective, and Tall Bear, the Blackfoot chief-to help clear his name and rid the city of a corruption extending from the seat of government down to those who should be upholding the law themselves. Outnumbered and outgunned but not outsmarted, the trio must gather their allies and prepare for the imminent battle. As the city of Portland explodes in a hail of gunfire and flaming arrows, both sides know that, in war, there can only be one victor.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
