But knowing what it looks like and avoiding it are two different things. The note shoved under her door had that familiar look. No signature and two words sure to catch her attention: Jonathan Revner. Trouble or not, she had to find out what the sender knew about Revner. Better yet, where she could find him. And just like that, Thystle walked into The Trap. She s going to need more than her sword and her fangs to get out of this one. This sword and sorcery, paranormal mashup from award-winning author A.M. Rycroft is a roller coaster ride that never lets up. Returning fans of the series will love the backstory of this surprisingly lovable vampire, while new fans will get one heck of an introduction.
