This book may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Born in Espirito Santo, Brazil, Bill grew up in his family's eatery; Rick, although born in Britain, was soon cooking up treats in his parents' Spanish tapas bar on the Costa Blanca. With Brazil set to host the FIFA World Cup next year and the Olympic Games shortly after, the pair want to complete your Amazonian experience and bring to you the exotic and fresh flavours of Brazilian Street Food. Bill says: The food in my country is fresh, tasty and easy to make. So come and try our fabulous food whether you are having a party, watching the World Cup or our great Carnival . Rick says: This book gives you an easy step by step guide, with stunning and practical pictures of how to make mouth watering and tasty street food. There is something in this book for everyone.
