

Mentiras en venecia

By Wilson, Andrew

PLATA, 2008. Condition: Nuevo. Abandonado por su novia, insatisfecho con su trabajo, Adam decide escapar a Italia para dar clases particulares de inglés al adolescente Antonio. A su llegada, no obstante, descubre que el muchacho ha dejado embarazada a la hija de su criada, y que los padres han optado por enviarlo al extranjero. Pero la suerte de Adam parece mejorar cuando Gordon Crace acepta contratarlo como asistente personal. Crace, autor británico responsable de una exitosa novela sobre las perversiones del mundillo universitario, es un excéntrico personaje que jamás abandona su casa pero que tampoco tolera la soledad. Pese a tales exigencias, Adam decide que la mansión del escritor quizá sea el lugar más adecuado para redactar su primer libro. Y ese libro bien podría ser la biografía de su empleador, ya que éste es dueño de un pasado donde los abusos sexuales se dan la mano con el asesinato. Para Adam, descubrir la verdad no será sinónimo de justicia, sino de best seller. Con Mentiras en Venecia, Andrew Wilson nos ofrece un magnífico thriller psicológico sobre los oscuros secretos que se esconden tras la belleza decadente de Venecia, una ciudad poblada por personajes aún más turbios que el agua de sus canales.
