Rain on a Summers Afternoon is a collection of short stories that are sometimes dark, sometimes humorous, and always imaginative. This collection includes Off Belay, previously published in The First Line magazine, as well as five new stories. The stories in this collection include: Pretty Chains Bound from birth to a life of servitude in the sultans palace, Ashas only moment of freedom was a brief one bought and paid for by her mothers life. Yet once the sultan pushes her past the breaking point, Asha will find there is more to her past than anyone suspects. The Flaming Oak Alys loves the Flaming Oak, even though the other villagers refuse to go near it. But Gran, who Alys trusts more than anyone, says that its safe to play with the ancient tree most days. Most days. . . The Wolf Mage Argen is a rare animal mage who uses her skills to mediate between the worlds of nature and man. But her skills are challenged when she meets a wolf unlike any she has ever seen before. A Rose by Any Other Name . . . Except, Perhaps, Agnes Agnes hates her name. She just doesnt own enough cats or afghans to suit it. Ahnye, on the other hand, has a perfect name and enough assault rifles and C4 to go with it. Yet to get this next job Agnes and Ahnye will have to learn to work as one. Irony Lisa knows all about irony; she explains the concept to college students every day as an English professor. But her new relationship with a sexy writer beau is about to show Lisa that reality can be more ironic...
