Excerpt from In the Matter of Charges Presented by Certain Professors Against the President of Union College: The Argument of the President s Counsel, Esek Cowen, Esq. The demand for College progress has been met, through President Potter, by a total of invested endowments, including principal, interest and all gains, exceeding half a million of dollars; the removal of liabilities exceeding a quarter of a million of dollars, and land provision to meet certain other liabilities. These benefactions, secured during the hard times, stand in contrast with two thousand dollars of endowments for 1862-47. Numbers have advanced from 85 to about 200. Alumni and Memorial Hall, and a Glyptotheca, have been added; the Gymnasium and residences, the Eastern Colonnades with Library Hall; the improvement of buildings, grounds, equipments; the introduction of water and gas, bathing facilities, etc.; large additions to the Library, the Art and Culture department and the apparatus and collections; the provision of more than one hundred thousand dollars for student aid, and a large amount available for support of professors and departments. The Nott Trust Fund excepted, Union Since 1872 (the year of President Potter s inauguration) has gained more in gifts and endowments than in the entire previous three-quarters of a century: It is hard work to find money, easy to find fault. The President has been active in building Up the College, and his enemies in secretly building up a party to destroy it. The Sort of evidence given and the spirit evinced in what Prof. Lawrence justly terms the persecution of the President, are apparent also from the following appeal. The Rev. Mr. Lawrence, an Alumnus. Who received...
