

Sketches of Early Texas and Louisiana

By Fr D Ric Gaillardet, Frederic Gaillardet

University of Texas Press, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A lively report of travels in early nineteenth-century Texas and Louisiana and a fascinating account of the discovery, exploration, and settlement of those areas is presented in the work of this ebullient young French dramatist and journalist who traveled to Louisiana in 1837 and to Texas in 1839. Frédéric Gaillardet, an alert and talented writer of the romantic school, was lured away for a decade from a successful career in Paris to satisfy his wanderlust and to seek inspiration on the American frontier. During that time he visited the American Southwest, and he talked with many personages there?men like Sam Houston, Mirabeau B. Lamar, and Achille Murat. His character sketches of these men add zest to the book, as do the facets of Gaillardet s own personality and life displayed in these pages. Gaillardet s reports of his travels were published in various French-language newspapers of the time; a few were incorporated into the author s posthumous memoirs. His opinions, as recorded in his writings, exerted undeniable influence in the French decision to recognize Texas; one of...
