Young people desperately need mentors to help guide them through the maze of life. They are hungry for insight and direction from those they trust. The Living the Set-Apart Life Workbook addresses pertinent questions in an interactive way. Some of these questions have to do with time, finances, relationships, dating, Godly femininity, as well as Godly masculinity. The authors mission is to interact with teens and young adults, in order to introduce, as well as affirm, Gods way of living instead of the worlds way. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
