Excerpt: . . . 12 the lives of seniors in my District and across this country, that is a blatant disregard for their lives. It is not good enough. Seniors in my District felt extreme disruption in their lives of HMO pullouts and they don't want to go through this again. Finally, I agree with the written testimony of Dr. Berenson, who points out that these disruptions actually underscore the importance of the need for a Medicare reform plan, and particularly including prescription drug coverage as a part of Medicare. That is the reason overwhelmingly that seniors in my District chose the Medicare Choice. So let's keep this in mind. Medicare today is an incomplete program without drug coverage. Seniors know that and that is why, as I said, many have chosen Medicare HMOs. So as we consider how Medicare Choice is doing,....
