The Lioness and the Crab is a semi-autobiographical fable about the magical encounter between a seeker on the path striving to become a spiritual warrior (the Lioness) and a spiritual guide (the Crab) who will become her mentor and teacher on her quest. In seven scenes, the Lioness receives a series of lessons that challenge her to strengthen her resolve to take life's opportunities for spiritual growth with the goal of becoming her true and authentic self. The dialogues in this little book will speak to anyone yearning for a life of heart and meaning and seeking guidance to respond to the call of Spirit. It takes the heart of a lioness and the wisdom of a crab to find courage and a way toward a transcendent life of service to the many and to All That Is.
