Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Battery Park In Battery Park Oh, man! thou world-tramp of eternity! Thou freedom-pilgrim of a stormy way! What hopes and longings after liberty Have spurred thee round the earth, and filled thy day With fierce adventure! What a mighty fray Hast thou been waging through the changing years, As ever out of despotism s sway Thou hast retreated, to endure the fears Of newer scenes, and solve the causes of thy tears! How hast thou peopled deserts to escape Thy tyrant-blighted homes, and still the wrong Did follow in the same oppressing shape, And helplessly thou did st flee its prong! How hast thou been so weak and yet so strong, To suffer persecutions violent. And through experiences sad and long, To cross the wilds of every continent, And brave the angry breasts of oceans turbulent! But foolishness and pain have ever been Thy richest benefactors, to obtain The ends for which thou art; and strife and sin Have been the surest builders of thy gain, In coping back to Asia whence the strain Of evils drove thee. Thy adversity Is what has made thee run life s rounding chain, To fitter orders of civility, In working out thy vast and wonderous destiny.
