Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Speech of Hon. J. R. West, of Louisiana: In the United States Senate, April 15, 1874 Mr. West said: Mr. President: What is termed the Louisiana question has been a prolific source of agitation before Congress and before the country ever since the presidential election of 1872. It may be expected that a renewal of the discussion of this question by the only representative in this body that that State is permitted to have will be undertaken with a view either to denounce the opponents of the cause which he maintains and extol the merits of those who act with him in its support, or with the other purpose of replying seriatim to all the arguments that have been adduced in favor of setting aside the government now existing in that State. Until I am compelled to do so, I shall speak in no unkind terms of the men who have engaged in the outrages that have been perpetrated of late years in Louisiana. Others may feel warranted in denouncing them in terms that are not only painful to me to listen to, but would be more painful to me to proclaim. I shall therefore not seek to vindicate one class of the citizens of Louisiana at the expense of the shame and exposure of the other. I shall deal to some extent with a class of politicians who come up here and represent to the Congress of the United States that they are the people of Louisiana. I will discuss their claims to be considered our people. I am honored by a representative position of both classes here. I shall speak, therefore, in no unnecessary unkindness of the...
