Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Banking and Prices in China Bank forms were invented by the Chinese. In banking Operations the Chinese, by the use of printed and written notes representing money, have been the teachers of the Europeans. Venetian merchants learned the use of bank forms from the Chinese and taught the system to the French, English, and German merchants. The same thing has happened in the Customs service. Many of the forms now in use in the Chinese Customs, under foreign control, were employed in the native Custom Houses for generations past. Banking consists in receiving money on deposit, in lending money, and in the dexterous use of paper forms representing money, whether principal or interest.
