Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Memoir of Mrs. Eliza Nelson Fryer, 1847-1910 In compiling this brief outline of the biography of a rare and noble woman, of whom it could be said most truthfully that None knew her but to love her, None named her but to praise, the chief difficulty consists in the fact that through her self-abnegation and modesty many of the most characteristic features of her career have not been left on record and only exist in the memories of relatives and confidential friends who are scattered far and wide in different lands. She was eminently one of those who do good by stealth and blush to find it fame, and hence a complete portrayal of her beautiful and noteworthy life is impossible. While it is a comparatively easy task to rehearse the simple facts which go to make up the framework of a life of average length and of vigorous mentality, it is evident that to look into the inmost recesses, to trace the animating purposes, and to resolve the everyday activities into their constituent elements,...
