

Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree

By Val Scully

lulu.com. Paperback. Condition: New. 346 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.8in. A child vanishes in a Lancashire village in 1919: a family shatters. Almost a century later, a descendent returns to the village and uncovers the story of the boy and how his sisters, rivals for the farm and for the heart of a soldier, fought to survive the aftermath: one driven by guilt and ambition, the other by duty and love. Deceit and betrayal can never be forgiven but they can be surmounted: a victim of both herself, Annie finds herself involved with three very different men: her charming and faithless husband; an ex-soldier with PTSD, and a man of the woods with a heart of oak. She discovers that her own future is inextricably bound up in that that of the village. Please note that this is the original edition and has more pages than the revised edition with the farm on the cover: this is simply because there is more space between the paragraphs! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
