Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Crisis: The New Black. A Code to Live by is Georgina Popescu s third book. She has written this one in English, while her previous books are in Romanian. This is how Georgina Popescu introduces herself and her latest book: I grew up happy, healthy and respected, in a beautiful communist country, which most people judge without knowing much about. Professionally speaking, I have been a banker for more than 15 years. And more specifically, a distressed loan recovery banker ever since the crisis managed to hit also the Eastern part of Europe, contradicting (!) the optimistic initial forecasts. Despite the turmoil experienced across more than 15 countries at a certain point in my career, I managed to maintain a sense of happiness, state of health (mental one included) and respect across my peers, in a rather challenging profession. Such graceful survival was possible because of the love, humor and common sense that were floating all around in my family as well as within the larger community of friends and co-workers. Don t get me wrong. .Being happy does not mean that I do not cry my eyes out, grief over the tombs of departed loved ones, burst out in anger or fight like a fierce lioness sometimes. .Being healthy does not mean I do not experience regular diseases and a couple of more complicated conditions from time to time. it just means that I have successfully healed from all that and currently my temporary earthly pain points migrate daily to different parts of my body, fact which my grandmother used to interpret as a state of reasonably good health. .And being respected. Well, I ve had my fair share of curses...
