Excerpt: .copies had been forwarded to England, to be distributed to retired Members--Honorary Members--and to the numerous Societies and Institutions in Great Britain; and that a complete set of both the old and new series had been presented to the Army Medical School, Chatham. A paper, presented by the Principal Inspector General Medical Department, entitled Special considerations on the health of European Troops, by Dr. Grierson, M.D., Staff Surgeon, Kurrachee, was then read (see p. 1 ante). An interesting case was then read, forwarded by Assistant Surgeon Joynt, Scinde Horse, of the death of a recruit of the 2nd Cavalry following a blow on the head in which no external injury could be perceived, or fracture detected, but in which after death laceration of the brain was discovered (see p. xliv. ante). After the best thanks of the meeting had been accorded to the contributors,...
