Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story centres around Anna, a thirteen year old girl who has been tragically orphaned and is bullied by her new family and peer group. Dealing with issues which affect thousands of children and young people such as loneliness and anxiety, the story provides coping strategies for panic attacks whilst highlighting that it only takes one person to make everything more bearable. Everything begins to change for Anna when David, a boy in her class, gives her an angel snow globe which shows glimpses of significant future events. The power of the angel is a gentle contrast to the harshness of bullying and the anxieties which surround it.
