Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Michelle Vandy (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . For many of us, our hidden potential blooms only later on in life. Mae, the little droopy flower growing on Uncle Al's Pick Yr Own Flower Farm, has had bad luck from the start because of a tree that's casting a shadow over her. She longs to be taken home in a pot but since she looks droopy and sick, no one is interested in her. Throughout the spring she watches kids take interest in every other flower but her. The end of Spring is almost here and yet no one has picked Mae. As she starts to lose hope, a little boy named Leo comes looking for something different. Leo finally spots Mae and she's exactly the kind of flower he's been looking for.
