

101 Survival Tactics for New and Used Parents (Paperback)

By Ruth D Lambert

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Based on over 25 years in a blended family (his kids and theirs), the author uses gentle humor and charming cartoon graphics to help new and used parents cope with their infants, toddlers and older children. Based on the humanist principles of expert Child Psychologist Haim Ginnot, this book contains simple tips that make parenting - in a humane, intelligent and kind manner - EASIER. This new edition includes information about avoiding toxic substances and going green. It focuses on empowering small children whenever possible to think for themselves, make sound choices, and enjoy the essential freedom of being who they are, while retaining clear controls by the parents to prevent harm. There are no complex or arbitrary rules: instead, these 101 tips are sensible and easy-to-incorporate ideas for the day-to-day reality of parenting, shared with a touch of humor and intimate stories from the author's own experiences. It is ideal for super busy new parents, working parents, stay-at-home parents, and parents dealing with blended families. It also makes an excellent baby shower gift!
