Sam Ricky West. Paperback. Condition: New. 28 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. Dear Readers, At the genesis of this chapbook, I set out to write poems about things that were actually worth writing about. So I picked up a pen, some napkins, and started jotting words. I opened my eyes, ears, hands, and heart. And after picking up a laptop to compile it all, I found that this, my first book of poems, was about love and loss. I write to capture moments of love as they truly are: broken, fleeting, sinful and painful, yet still beautiful. I write with the resolve that such snapshots matter, for if they do not, what does I write about stories full of culture and family, privilege and struggle, faith and doubt, power and weakness. Stories that take place in Oakland, DF, UCLA, East San Jose, Linda Vista, and Nicaragua. I write about things and places that have been dynamic in the past year. I write in the USA in a time when it is grappling to understand itself as its culture changes with eagle speed. . . . Sincerely, Sam. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
