Excerpt from Forty-Fourth Annual Report of the City of Rochester, New Hampshire: For the Year Ending December 31st, 1935 In accordance with the provisions of our City charter and the laws of New Hampshire, the citizens of Rochester have delegated to us the power to conduct for them the affairs of this City for the year 1936. We are the servants of all the people, chosen by them to carry on and transact the big business of spending nearly a half a million dollars of their money. Partisan politics must never enter into our policies as we are pledged to serve the best interests of all the people.
