Ranya Mestrien is only six years old but she already knows she s a burden on her family. She should be able to manipulate Water at will. Instead she can barely move a droplet. It s unsurprising, then, that she spends more time with the despised tovariken, those without elemental magic, than in her own home. The night she slips away from a House dinner and nearly drowns, everything changes. It s not only the Scion who discovers her soaked on a jetty in the harbour, cradled by the Water Guardian himself. Her parents are there too. The Water Guardian s interest seems to indicate she s not as worthless as everyone thought and now the Scion, third in power in the House of Water, has plans for her. It turns out family isn t always who you re born to.
