The preaching of another gospel is such an abomination that the Apostle Paul said not once, but twice that if anyone preached such a gospel that he is deserving of being cursed (Galatians 1:8-10). Paul also said that those preaching another gospel in order to please man are not true servants of God. True servants of God seek to please God by preaching truth while those who are not true servants of God are willing to preach false gospels in order to please men. Many are also prone to preach a false gospel for the purpose of filling their pockets with money. The preaching of false gospels is a serious matter. It is not something that should be taken lightly. Those preaching false gospels need to immediately repent of it. The Apostle Paul said that anyone preaching another gospel deserved to be cursed. Therefore we all should obey God by preaching the truth which means that all need to cease from preaching another gospel.
