

Shadows of the Past

By E. Jensen

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 460 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.2in. Even in the shadow, her past haunts her. In a small town in northern New Jersey someone (or something) has murdered a twenty year old waitress by injecting liquid silver into her heart. It is one of a string of ghastly murders that are occurring around Grabenberg, NJ. OPIA, the Occult and Paranormal Investigation Agency, decides its time to call in their best agent. The only problem is Kirsa Heinrich has been living in a secluded town in Germany where her ancestors are from. There she is trying to rebuild her life after her parents murder and a grisly case brought her world tumbling down. Kirsa puts the clues left at the crime scene together and realizes her worst fear; a cult that has been targeting her family for years is now killing in her home town. The Church of Light, a radical cult that is against werewolves, vampires, witches, the fae and anyone that associates with them. Kirsa decides they must be stopped and she is the one to do it. When the Vampire Council hears she is working on the case they assign her a...
