Moonpath Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The way Paul Fisher sees the world and writes about it is pure delight! An Exaltation of Tongues is full of astounding images and the wisdom of his shaman voice - from the green blood of grass / to the moon s missing half. I love the nuances, the leaping alchemical word magic, and the vision in these poems - sweet as stolen honey / ladled from the Great Bear s tongue. I love the way his poems leap between worlds, and the transparency of emotion is stunning. Every line has the magic I have come to enjoy in Paul Fisher s writing. Diane Frank, Author of Canon for Bears and Ponderosa Pines Paul Fisher s An Exaltation of Tongues is accessible and then unusual, for it does not receive a spirit, speaking in tongues, unknowable and nourished somehow on high . . . Authority, instead, is given with such a light touch - to my tongue ; to your burnt tongue ; to double-edged and severed tongues . His poetry sustains affirmation in an unaffirming, unsustainable world. Judith Hall, author of The Promised Folly.
