Dorrance Publishing Co., United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Magical Mystery Turned 2 Love by Baileigh Morreau weaves a riveting tale of fantasy and adventure, and as expressed in the title, magic and mystery. We initially meet Sara and Tess, two young women who have grown up together in a small village, while unbeknownst to them, a large portion of their past memories have been lost. It isn't until they meet a couple of bikers named Jordan and Jude that they realize they are in danger from an unknown source and unsure of the reason for this peril. There is the proverbial struggle between good and evil as these four accept the challenge and persevere to find the truth behind the threat to their safety. What they discover comes as a complete surprise, creating changes in their futures they never dreamed possible. Who knew such lives actually existed? It is the author's hope that the reader's takeaway will be that one should fight to reach what they seek in their life, no matter how large the obstacles placed in the path. About the Author The author was born in the small town of Belleville, Ontario, Canada and raised on a dairy farm. This Canadian citizen is a wife and the mother of three, who several years ago decided a change of scenery was in order and moved her family to the West Coast of Alberta. She has an interest in discovering the possibilities of the magical world and how things work. She also spent nine years as a volunteer with a medical organization covering public events, many involving bikers. Working the night shift in security allowed for time to conceive the twists and turns involved in the...
