Slack Incorporated, 2005. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "The authors intended this second edition book 'to be a tool for the student occupational therapist and the practicing therapist as they strive to organize and classify their occupational therapy experiences to best serve their clients'. An excellent job has been done of meeting that goal . . . The book is well written, well organized and easy to read. I recommend it as an excellent resource for new and experienced occupational therapists as well as for educators, health care administrators and policy writers." -- Phyllis Straathof, Canadian Journal of Occupational Therapy.
