

Doubletake

By Ana'gia Wright

Aziza Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 296 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.7in. In the grand scheme of things, Sheridan Malcolm has it all: a nice quiet life, a loving family and a successful contracting business. But beneath the pitter patter of little feet, thoughts of his past intrude upon his peace of mind. There is still a missing piece to the puzzle, one that he is not sure he is ready to face. Amira Malcolm stands by her husband in any endeavor he opts to undertake. When he is called away on business, her world is thrust into utter chaos. Her friends tell her they've seen Sheridan with other women and Amira doesn't know what to think. Discovering she is pregnant, she tries to put the rumors to rest for the sake of her marriage and her unborn child. The pregnancy news comes as a shock to Sheridan, especially when the dates aren't adding up. And with the accusations his wife is throwing his way, Sheridan starts to ask questions of his own. His mother always told him to keep his friends close and his family even closer. Could it be that someone from his past is sabotaging his future...
