Cobra Cobra LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cataclysm often receives no introduction. Habitually lacking a foreboding sign, a disastrous incident can strike without warning catching everyone in its path off-guard. Although people are aware of countless life-ending threats that occur with vicious intent and devoid of notice, folks live their lives expecting bliss. And why not, widespread annihilation is rare? Moreover, a free society cannot thrive if too many people live in fear of a premature and unnatural death, imagining demise at every turn. For this reason that potential is ignored and our country s leadership expects us to, otherwise quality life would cease long before an episode of physical downfall. On the other hand, should an indication of pending tragedy present itself, do you shout it out? Well, if it s an unconfirmed hunch maybe not. but a series of tangible and chronic hazards would reasonably present a different reaction. But then, another deterrent arises. People have cried wolf so many times that our rationale is sedated, often to the point of insensitivity. In addition, honest complainers can be branded as crazy and for little reason. This plight is tough to deal with, especially for an educated mind because this trend makes it difficult for a sane individual to illuminate problems. People simply don t want to expose looming tragedy at their own expense. Nevertheless, Sheryl, a professional in a comprehensive field has learned to explain tricky situations so well, the task has become standard procedure. But of course, how does she react when her spouse may be the one to fear? Perhaps he is her principal adversary and the source of endangering humanity? With too little time to contemplate.the genuine danger is exposed and it s...
