She took hibakusha across the USSR on the Trans-Siberian Railway during the Cold War. She spent the last 10 years of her life in California helping Cambodian and Vietnamese refugees. She wrote 7 books--a murder mystery, four children s novels, a book about leopons, a cross between a leopard and a lion, and her spiritual autobiography, The Phoenix and the Dove. This look at both Barbara s public and private lives was written, with admiration and candor, by her daughter...
