Sustained by Faith: Personal Awakening in God

By Mary Ann Johnston

Tatienne Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. A powerful story of hope and courage! This book bears witness to the truth that even in the midst of darkness we can be filled with light. Mary Ann candidly and generously shares the details of a difficult life lived in the consciousness of the Holy Presence and in so doing uplifts and inspire us all. Marilyn BeckerSenior Screenwriting Professor, School of Film and TelevisionLoyola Marymount Univ. Los Angeles, CAThis wonderful book will make the very depths of your soul cry, while also giving you hopeshowing you that there truly is light at the end of the tunnel of despair and pain. It is impossible to read Mary Ann Johnstons autobiography without being transformed, without seeing your life as a path with purpose. The author is a deeply spiritual person, who bravely lived through very tough times. This book is different from other stories of people finding solace in religious convictions, as Mary Anns faith does not come only from her Christian upbringing and beliefs. It also arises from and is continuously strengthened by blissful spiritual experiences and loving communion with Jesus and divine beings in both Christian and Hindu traditions. Through her...
