Under the Holly Moon (Paperback)

By Ellen Dugan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Is she a good Witch, or a bad Witch? Holly Bishop, the darkest practitioner of her entire family line returns home after almost three years living as a mundane, a very changed young woman. Determined to start fresh, she begins by rebuilding her relationship with her family, even as she keeps a heartbreaking secret. While she was away, life has gone on for the rest of the Bishops, and Holly struggles to find her place in William s Ford, and in her family once again. Transferring to the local university is the least of Holly s problems. She is constantly tempted to use her empathic abilities and now that she is back home, her newer and stronger powers are attempting to break loose. When an adversary returns seeking revenge, Holly ultimately pays a hard price and then falls under suspicion due to her family s legacy of magick, and her own troubled past. Now Holly realizes that she must cast off the fear she has carried, re-embrace magick, and accept her powers. But things are never quite as they...
