James Wagner, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . As a boy Jim Wagner was the target of schoolyard bullies, but that all changed in high school when a new friend, Alfonso Uceda, on the football team introduced him to the martial arts. Jim not only learned how to fight, but he purposely chose a path in life where he d have no choice but to use his skills. This is the true story of Jim Wagner that embarks on an incredible journey of a career in the military, law enforcement, and counterterrorism that hop scotches all around the world: from the jungles of Argentina training Special Operations units to combat a secret war with radical Islam before 9/11, to the remote dusty desert town of Wadi Musa in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan where he was poisoned by the police for being a spy, to teaching the Israeli police and military his unique fighting system that they needed to complete their own Krav Maga. Just as if you were going through it right alongside him, this story has you experience the pain and exuberance of a turbulent U.S. Army in the 1980s, the stress and excitement of getting through the police academy, patrolling the streets south of Los Angeles as a cop, having to deal with a bunch of knuckle draggers of an unappreciative S.W.A.T. team, the dazzle and boredom of being a bodyguard for the movie stars, diplomats, and a corrupt Sheriff who was once affectionately called America s Sheriff by the media. After the terrorist attacks on 9/11 you ll discover what it was like first hand to go through counterterrorism school with the Feds, and end up on a fully loaded passenger airplane facing a suspected Pakistani terrorist...
