Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Three Americas Exposition: Arguments Before the Quadro-Centennial Committee of the United States Mr. Anderson. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, we come before your honorable committee as representatives of a committee of citizens from all of the forty-six States and Territories, who have for four years past, under the name of a Board of Promotion, advocated a Three Americas Exposition at the national capital, in 1892, in honor of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus. During this period fifty-six governors, representing in all forty-one States and Territories, the mayors of sixty leading cities, one hundred and seventy-six presidents and secretaries of boards of trade throughout the United States, and the masters and secretaries (one or both) of thirty State and Territorial granges, have formally, and in writing accepted membership in the board, and pledged their co-operation in support of this patriotic movement. In addition to this, we bring resolutions indorsing the movement from the National Board of Trade, American Bankers Association, National Grange in two annual conventions, International Medical Congress, American Medical Association, Carriage Builders National Association, American Association of Agricultural Colleges, United States Potters Association, Washington National Monument Society, the Mt. Vernon Ladies Association of the Union, and various other bodies. (See Belmont Report, pp. 19 to 28.) We also bring a unanimous report in favor of a Permanent Exposition of the Three Americas, submitted to the House of Representatives on the 16th of June, 1888, by the Committee on Foreign Affairs, through its chairman, Hon. Perry Belmont, of New York. This report is No. 2601, Fiftieth Congress, first session, and we submit it as a portion of our argument in so far as...
