Only God and history, dear brethren, will ultimately verify the true color of this moment in history and the distant shore to which this moment is taking us. However, beneath the unfolding drama of this post-modern crisis, God has His torchbearers, the prophets of the new millennium -- God s Shepherds. I salute you, my brothers. It is to you and for you that I speak. You are the strong nails that hold the church together. You are an assorted group, often ministering in obscurity, smoldering. Like Tozer, Packer, Phillips, Lewis, and a host of men of renown from the previous generation, you too will spark, sending bursts of light streaming through the post-modern church as the new millennium unfolds. With one voice, you and your fellows, like refugees from the past, will mourn and weep through your pens and pulpits, seeking to astonish and awaken God s church.
