

Ladies Man

By Frederick Germaine

F. Germaine Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 222 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Damien Hardy had everything early in life. He is an academic and athletic All-American at Crenshaw High in Los Angeles. On top of that, he's attractive, popular, and most of all madly in love with his beautiful girlfriend named Crystal Gayle. Until one horrific day, he catches Crystal in bed with another man and she breaks his heart. Right then, he vows never to fall in love again or give his heart to a woman. Damien rescinds his baseball scholarship offer from USC and decides to attend the University of Miami instead. After a disappointing college baseball career, Damien's best friend Mookie convinces him to relocate to Atlanta. Mookie schools Damien on the starting five concept and Damien never looks back. While in Atlanta, Damien is involved with a plethora of beautiful black women and never can seem to get enough. After many years, love eventually prevails. Damien finds himself trying to make the ultimate choice. First, Crystal resurfaces when she relocates her medical practice from L. A. to Atlanta. She desperately wants to rekindle her love interest with Damien. Secondly, Diamond springs back into...
