Sandra Meyer's spiritual journey through life resembles that of many others, and she writes from her familiarity of both the good and hard times. Practical ideas to help you grow come from ordinary activities, nature, and experience. Often Christians march forward, only to take a slow ride downhill, unaware until we've already lost ground. Sharing her defeats as well as victories, Sandra has e-mailed her meditations for several years and has responses like those below. Some topics discussed in Words of Worth include trials, trouble, and temptations; discipline; contentment; and intimacy with God. Wow! Karen Davis suggested the title Words of Worth because when I read Sandra Meyer's meditations, I usually say Wow! and they are worth so much to me. Melvin Gordy says, When I had to have an operation . I found that by reading articles like the ones Sandra Meyer writes I got relief. That is the real reason I wanted to see Words of Worth published. Rhonda Baronne tells, I am in a nursing home ministry. We have shared the meditations with the residents, and they were truly blessed. Sandra Meyer's writings are very uplifting and encouraging.
