Createspace, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I don t think we d better go home that way, Helen. Why not? Mr. Bassett won t care-and it s the nearest way to the road. But he s got a sign up-and his cattle run in this pasture, said Ruth Fielding, who, with her chum, Helen Cameron, and Helen s twin brother, Tom, had been skating on the Lumano River, where the ice was smooth below the mouth of the creek which emptied into the larger stream near the Red Mill. Aw, come on, Ruthie! cried Tom, stamping his feet to restore circulation. The ground was hard and the ice was thick on the river; but the early snows that had fallen were gone. It was the day after Christmas, and Helen and Ruth had been at home from school at Briarwood Hall less than a week. Tom, too, who attended the Military Academy at Seven Oaks, was home for the winter holidays. It was snapping cold weather, but the sun had been bright this day and for three hours or more the friends had enjoyed themselves on the ice. Surely Hiram Bassett hasn t turned his cows out in this weather, laughed Helen.
