THE GLEANER, VOL. 11: FEBRUARY, 1920 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Gleaner, Vol. 11: February, 1920 Patience applies to every walk of life. The success of everyone lies but far enough away to be reached by seeing things through. I make no mention of the man who has the patience to exclude everything else but his own work. There is no benefit in a machine not controlled by a mind and no uplifting in uence derived from a slave to his own work. We realize only that per son who can will himself to his task, have the patience to see it through and still have time to be a human being. Fellow classmates, let each one of us go from here to succeed. Not to succeed in being an underling but to concentrate on everything you attempt. Let it be yourselves who move up the road and pass the men who cannot grasp their own shortcomings. But let your ambition not lag after you started the upward move, Vision yourselves at the head and strive to be there, a credit to your Alma Mater and the pride of your friends. I avail myself of this Opportunity to thank the Fa culty for the interest in our welfare. We have passed a period in our young manhood that means more to us than mere words can describe. We have learned, not only your teachings, but how to help ourselves. To the President and the Board of Directors we extend the well wishes for the further success of this institution. May we return at times and ourselves wit ness the growth of a worthy ideal. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more...
