Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book describes the author s journey into widowhood and uses critical reflection to make sense of the turbulent emotions the death of a spouse can bring. This account is not a how to book. It is in no way intended to suggest a right or a wrong way to grieve. It is perhaps self-indulgent but it was something that the author felt she needed to do to try and make sense of the wildly contrasting emotions she experienced. It is simply a warts n all account of what happened to her before, during and after her husband s death. What it may do is highlight that no death of a loved-one, no matter how expected or inevitable; is without potentially devastating consequences which leaves the bereaved struggling to find any way forward.
