What is that, mother?--The eagle, boy!--Proudly careering his course of joy, Firm on his own mountain-vigour relying, Breasting the dark storm, the red bolt defying; His wing on the wind, his eye on the sun, He swerves not a hair, but bears onward, right on. Boy, may the eagle s flight ever be thine, Onward, and upward, and true to the line. What is that, mother?--The swan, my love!--He is floating down from his native grove; No loved one now, no nestling nigh, He is floating down by himself to die; Death darkens his eye, and unplumes his wings, Yet the sweetest song is the last he sings. Live so, my love, that when death shall come, Swanlike and sweet, it may waft thee home. G. W. DOANE. THE BEOKEN HEAET. What makes me court seclusion...
