Twenty-three-year-old Paris Fonnereau just wants to escape the life his mother has laid out for him. Headstrong and determined, he s more interested in establishing his online empire than being the heir to the New York witch coven. When Paris s mother dies in a house fire, he doesn t believe the official report claiming it an accident. To catch the killer, he must return to the coven as the Witch King-a role the rest of the coven covet above all else. With only the help of his best friends, Paris must uncover the truth and bring the coven back from the brink of war.
