Blue, Green and Everything in Between: Musings on Life, Love and Sustainability (Paperback)

By Dr Prasad Modak

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Manish Rangnekar (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In my life, I have been fortunate enough to become a Professor, practice as a Consultant and establish an organization as an Entrepreneur. Furthermore, my proximity to the Government, International Development Financing Institutions and Corporates, gave me unique exposure and experience. Indeed, these multiple roles have helped me acquire a holistic perspective on environmental management and sustainability. My extensive travel across continents has added yet another dimension of professional and personal experience that I really cherish. I met amazing people as I globe trotted and made wonderful friends in this process. I started writing posts on my blog site since 2014. The focus of the posts was to raise issues of concern on environmental management and sustainability relevant to India. Today there are more than 1300 followers and more than 45000 views. Enthused by this response, I released a compilation of 60 select posts early this year captioned SIXTY SHADES OF GREEN. This book has been well received. The second book presents 25 posts that reflect my personal experiences (I call them BLUE) and another 25 posts...
