Excerpt from Argument of John Luttrell Murphy: Before the New City Hall Commission, Delivered on the 5th and 6th of September, 1880, in Support of His Resolution for Day Labor on the New City Hall, San FranciscoGentlemen: In behalf of the resolution introduced by me in your honorable body on the day of August, 1880, providing for letting the ordinary mechanical and other work upon the New City Hall out to the people at large, by the day, instead of letting it out to a few of the people only, in bulk, I have to say: The proposition is not intended to work any very great or radical change in the general plan or manner of building the New City Hall, but only in a conservative spirit to enlarge and improve one branch of that service, which has from the start been, to a more or less extent, recognized and followed by those in charge of the work. The proposition is not to do away with the contract system entirely - nor in fact at all - but only to change the mode of contracting in one of its features only - that in relation to labor - and only as to a certain kind of labor at that.
