Excerpt from Foreign Agriculture Circular: January 1979 Larger pork and poultry supplies will likely temper the anticipated increase in cattle and beef prices. Hog and broiler producer s profit margins should remain favorable at least through the first half of 1979, and this probably will result in further pork and poultry production increases this year. The lower domestic supplies of manufacturing quality beef probably will make u.s. Import demand for this type of beef very strong in 1979. The United States has set the 1979 voluntary restraint level for meat imports subject to the Meat Import Law (primarily manufacturing quality beef) at approximately tons, product weight, slightly above the 1978 level. Imports under the Law usually account for about 85 percent of total beef imports. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
