Forgotten Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Annual Report of the State Librarian of the State of New Jersey, for the Year 1893 To the Law Department every valuable work announced has been added, and the collection is the constant theme of admiration of leading old lawyers of Philadelphia, New York, Jersey City, Newark and Camden, who are employed in our State and United States Courts. The Miscellaneous Department is celebrated for its varied treasures. Upon one wall is a complete set of the journals of Congress, including the Globe and the Record, without a volume missing, and on another wall is a complete set of Patent Office Reports, including the Official Gazette, to date. Here the patent lawyers and their clients revel, and we call it our Patent Office. In this department we have also all the leading Encyclopedias of the world, all the standard Histories, especially of the States, all the leading works on Theology, Philosophy, Science, Travels, Art and Biography, and the tables are constantly occupied by persons hunting up their pedigrees, students of the Normal School and Business Colleges preparing for debates and other exercises, and numerous reporters ascertaining or verifying facts for public information. During the year we have been able to obtain a copy of that rare book, Carter's Ancient Architecture of England, during the British, Roman, Saxon and Norman eras, down to the time of Edward III., illustrated by one hundred and nine royal folio engravings. There has also been added to the Library a full set of Harper's Magazine, with an index. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
