Publications, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

By Academy Of Pacific Coast History

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 384 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Excerpt from Publications, Vol. 1. Note - Through the courtesy of the San Francisco Clearing House, six complete specimen sets (cancelled) of the various forms and denominations of the Clearing House Certificates used in San Francisco during the recent financial stringency have been placed in the library of the Academy of Pacific Coast History, where they will be preserved for future reference. This memorandum is written to accompany the deposit and to provide a permanent record, for historical purposes, of the origin and use of the certificates and of the events of this interesting episode. In October, 1907, the banks in San Francisco experienced great difficulty in securing coin to supply the needs of the community for circulation. This stringency was San Francisco's participation in the general stringency felt all over the United States, and, as it had no local origin or local peculiarities, need not be reviewed in this connection. Two means of meeting this stringency and of avoiding dangerous results were applied. One was the device of legal and special holidays, declared by the Governor from day to day. The first...
